Skill Name: Roku Accessible Remote

1. Acceptance of Terms

By enabling or using the Roku Accessible Remote skill (the "Skill"), you agree to be bound by these Terms of Use.

If you do not agree with these terms, you may not use the Skill.

2. Description of the Skill

The Skill is designed to provide an accessible and hands-free way to control Roku TVs using voice commands via Amazon Alexa. It allows users to perform tasks such as opening apps, adjusting volume, and navigating menus.

3. Requirements

To use the Skill, you must meet the following requirements:

- Have an Amazon Alexa-enabled device.
- Have a Roku TV that supports External Control Protocol (ECP).
- Maintain an active internet connection for the Skill to function.
- Have an ESP32 microcontroller programmed with the code provided on our project profile on MakerRepo : <https://makerepo.com/fatima/2349.integreater-simple-tv-remote>

4. Limitations of Use

You agree to use the Skill only for lawful purposes and in compliance with these Terms of Use. You may not:

- Reverse engineer, disassemble, or otherwise tamper with the Skill.
- Use the Skill in any manner that could interfere with its functionality or the functionality of Amazon Alexa or Roku devices.

5. Responsibility for Commands

The Skill processes voice commands issued by you. You are solely responsible for ensuring that commands issued to Alexa are intentional and appropriate. We are not liable for any unintended actions or consequences resulting from misinterpreted or incorrect commands.

6. Third-Party Services

This Skill relies on third-party services, including Amazon Alexa and Roku's ECP. By using this Skill, you acknowledge and agree to the terms and policies of these third parties:
